Retirement Security & Energy Dominance This Week

Millions of American workers gained powerful new tools to build long-term wealth thanks to President Trump's Executive Order establishing TrumpIRA.gov. The initiative delivers up to $1,000 in federal matching contributions and expands access to alternative assets in retirement accounts — putting real money back in the pockets of working families.

At the same time, President Trump approved a major new Canada-U.S. pipeline project, advancing America's energy dominance, creating thousands of high-paying American jobs, and strengthening our nation's energy independence.

Additionally, President Trump launched Project Freedom, a humanitarian initiative to safely guide neutral ships and crews out of the Strait of Hormuz, showcasing American strength and goodwill while positive talks with Iran continue.

From delivering groundbreaking retirement savings tools for working families to advancing energy dominance and global leadership, the Trump Administration continues delivering real results for the American people.
